Traditional Mountain Property with Panoramic Views - Renovation Project

A rare opportunity to create a beautiful home in a peaceful mountain setting.

This traditional property offers enormous potential for someone looking for a renovation project away from the hustle and bustle of built-up areas. Set against a dramatic mountain landscape, the property enjoys far-reaching views and a wonderfully peaceful rural atmosphere.

The existing house retains many traditional features and offers a substantial starting point for renovation. The property is currently laid out with 16 rooms with separate bathroom and toilet, making it ideal for buyers looking to restore and redesign a character property to their own
