Reintroduced to the market at a reduced price - January 2024 This large corner bungalow house offers excellent internal accommodation and benefits from a lovely mature garden with space to add a private swimming pool if required. The house is located close to the heart of the village and therefore within easy walking distance to an abundance of amenities including many shops, supermarket, pharmacy, banks and supermarkets. Los Belones is a thriving large village and has become a very popular location for permanent living. It is close to the historic port of Cartagena and also benefits from being within easy reach of the Mediterranean and the M...(Ask for More Details!)
